A SPECIAL GUEST THIS MONTH – HAVERFIELD AVIATION

Haverfield Aviation is visiting the Erie Municipal Airport this month and into September. They have brought their Huey Helicopter to Colorado to assist in some construction in the area.

Haverfield Aviation Inc. is the leading provider of aerial transmission inspection, maintenance, repair, upgrade, replacement and construction support services to the North American electric utility industry. Founded in 1981 and based in Gettysburg, PA, Haverfield is recognized as the pioneer of aerial transmission services to the utility industry, revolutionizing power services by demonstrating the applicability of helicopters to the transmission grid.

When asked what they do, the answer was “we lift things up”. We are very happy to host them here at the airport!
