Whereas, the Agencies have expressed interest in exploring the potential socioeconomic impacts of a regional minimum wage higher than the State of Colorado’s minimum wage prior to deciding whether to raise the local minimum wage;

Whereas, the Agencies agree a consultant is necessary to aid the Agencies in their analysis of the potential socioeconomic impacts of a regional minimum wage; and

Whereas, the Agencies are working collaboratively to develop the scope of this analysis and share consultant costs.

Now Therefore, in consideration of the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Agencies agree to the following:
