STAFF RECOMMENDATION: Staff recommends approval of the amended intergovernmental agreement.

SUMMARY AND BACKGROUND OF SUBJECT MATTER:

The Town of Erie and Boulder County entered into an Intergovernmental Agreement (IGA) for the Town to collect use tax for Boulder County in February 1996. In the IGA, the Town agrees to collect, administer and enforce countywide use taxes. This is the Eighth Amendment to this IGA. Because of the expiration/extension/repurposing of some of Boulder County's use taxes in recent elections, the IGA requires amendment. In addition, the amendment also obviates the need for future amendments, simplifying the process for accommodating future changes in the County's use taxes.
