Why are you interested in serving on a board or commission and what specific talents or expertise do you bring if appointed?	CEO of Surveillance One for 26 years, providing security technology for ground-based assets and associated airspace (drone threats). Pilot based at Erie Airport, National HQ based on Airport Dr, active in 50 states.
Have you served on another board/commission in an advisory capacity? If so, please describe the board and what made serving in that capacity a good experience? What were the major concerns or issues?	Yes, on the Board at the Erie Convair Hangar Association (Business Park on Airport Dr); Chaired an international NGO for 1 year and board member for 6; Currently Chair of the National Water Security Standards Council for the American Society of Civil Engineers.
Please describe a situation where you were working with a small group and disagreed with the direction of the project, what did you do? What was the result?	Boards are typically smaller groups, and almost no issues are seen unanimously. The key is to find common ground. Recently we had budgetary conflicts in one board meeting, it was resolved through careful communication, asking lots of questions, and finding careful compromises where all objectives could be heard. A resolution was made by delaying hard cost increases immediately, and creating a progressive increase over time, while showing responsibility in the deliverables in good faith.
If you were appointed, what goals would you like to see accomplished on this board or commission?	Growth and health of the community surrounding the airport, more restaurants and businesses around the airport that could bring economic growth and additional places to bring enjoyment to the community while generating revenue. Modernizing the airport, creating balanced environmental paths, creating compounded revenue streams in overnight/multi-night stays, while keeping Erie a small town destination.
Are you aware of the time commitment, and do you have the personal time to devote to this board or commission?	Yes
